

Firefly adds flights for Chinese New Year

KUALA LUMPUR: Budget airline Firefly is offering extra flights on the Subang-Alor Setar-Subang and the Singapore-Ipoh-Singapore routes to meet the anticipated higher demand during the Chinese New Year holidays.

“The extra flights during Chinese New Year cover the Singapore-Ipoh route on Feb 9, 11, 12, 13, 16, 17 and 21 and the Subang-Alor Setar route on Feb 13,” its marketing and communications head Angelina Fernandez said in a statement yesterday.

The Singapore-Ipoh-Singapore extra flights have been on sale since October last year.

Details can be obtained from www.fireflyz.com.my or at all Firefly airport and city ticketing offices and Malaysia Airlines ticketing offices. — Bernama
